Property Description

International flights could be landing in Hua Hin by as early as the end of this year.
The airports authority (AO) has received a proposal from Air Asia to operate daily flights between Hua Hin and Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia.
If given the green light, it will mean the first commercial use of the airport that is just a handful of kilometers from the city center and could be a major boon for tourism.
Darun Saengchai of the AO said that Air Asia wants landing fees and rental charges for airport facilities waived in the initial stages of operation to get the route started.
If agreed by the AO and related agencies, the first international flights could be coming to the resort by the
