Property Description

Introduction In a remarkable achievement, Thailand has exceeded its tourism expectations, welcoming over 28 million foreign tourists in 2023. This surge in visitors has not only surpassed the initial target of 25 million but also significantly contributed to the country's economy, generating a staggering 1.
2 trillion baht in revenue.
This influx of tourists presents an exciting opportunity for property investors and expats in regions like Hua Hin, Cha-Am, and Koh Samui. Key Drivers of Tourism Growth The late-year spike in tourism can be largely attributed to several strategic policy changes by the Thai government.
Notable among these were visa exemptions for Chinese and Indian tourists, extended stay allowances for Russian visitors, and simplified border procedures for Malaysian tourists. These initiatives greatly facilitated international
