Property Description

Introduction The eagerly awaited new Hua Hin Train Station is set to begin operations next week, enhancing the region's transportation infrastructure.
The State Railway of Thailand has confirmed that from December 11, 2023, all ticketing will shift to this new, state-of-the-art facility.
Transition to the New Facility Coinciding with the old Hua Hin Station's closure, the new station will handle all train services to and from Hua Hin starting December 15.
This transition marks a significant upgrade in the travel experience for both residents and visitors.
Location and Accessibility Situated just a short walk south of the original station, the new Hua Hin Station is easily accessible, located about 200 meters from its predecessor.
This strategic placement ensures seamless connectivity for passengers.
