Property Description

Navigating Thailand’s New Tax Laws: A Guide for Expats Eyeing Hua Hin and Koh Samui In 2024, Thailand introduced a significant overhaul of its tax system, impacting expats across the country. This new regime transforms the financial landscape, particularly affecting how expats in Thailand manage their foreign earned income. For those considering buying property in the picturesque locales of Hua Hin and Koh Samui, understanding these changes is crucial. DanSiam Property, a leading real estate agent in these regions, offers insights and guidance on navigating this new tax landscape. Understanding the Changes Previously, expats enjoyed a relatively lax tax system, where foreign earnings remained untaxed if not brought into Thailand. The revision, effective from January 1, 2024, alters this, taxing all foreign earned
