Property Description

February 2024 has marked a significant uptick in tourism for Koh Samui, Surat Thani Province, with a notable increase in Chinese visitors, alongside European tourists, flocking to the island for the Chinese New Year celebrations.
The festive atmosphere, highlighted by Samui Airport's welcoming red lanterns, signals a vibrant recovery phase for the island's tourism sector, underscored by the request to boost daily flights from 50 to 73 to accommodate the influx.
The Real Estate Ripple Effect This resurgence in tourism, especially with an expected 5,000-6,000 Chinese tourists visiting this month, opens a window of opportunity for real estate investors. Koh Samui's authorities and the Tourism Promotion Association are optimistic about the positive impact of the government's visa-free policy, seeing a dispersion of revenue
