Property Description

Introduction Recent market trends have shown a significant shift in real estate dynamics within Thailand, with tourist cities like Phuket, Pattaya, and Hua Hin experiencing a surge in demand and development that now surpasses even Bangkok. Market Revitalization The resurgence of tourism post-COVID-19 has played a pivotal role in revitalizing these areas, attracting both international tourists and investors.
With a total investment hitting a staggering 56. 6 billion baht, these coastal cities are setting new benchmarks in the real estate sector.
Surge in Developments Phattarachai Thaweewong, the Director of Research and Communication at Colliers International Thailand, highlights the unprecedented growth in these regions.
The first quarter of 2024 alone saw remarkable activity: Phuket launched 12 new projects with investments exceeding 25 billion baht, anticipating
