Property Description

In an effort to boost tourism and the economy, Thailand has announced significant changes to its visa policies, effective July 15, 2024.
Nationals from 93 countries and territories can now visit Thailand without a visa for up to 60 days, with an option to extend their stay for an additional 30 days.
This development is part of a broader initiative by the Thai government to make the country more accessible and attractive to international travelers.
Visa Exemption Details Thailand's Ministry of Foreign Affairs has confirmed that visitors from 93 countries and territories are now eligible for visa-free entry.
This visa exemption allows a stay of up to 60 days, which can be extended by 30 days at the discretion of the Immigration officer,
