Property Description

Thailand’s property market is poised to undergo a major transformation in 2025, fueled by the anticipated implementation of the “China Plus One” policy.
This strategy, supported by U.
S.
President-elect Donald Trump, encourages companies to diversify their manufacturing operations away from China, positioning Thailand as a prime alternative for global businesses.
With its strategic location, robust infrastructure, and investor-friendly policies, Thailand is expected to attract an influx of foreign capital and manufacturing facilities, catalyzing growth in its property sector.
The “China Plus One” policy aims to mitigate risks associated with over-reliance on China’s manufacturing ecosystem.
For companies seeking a stable and cost-effective base in Asia, Thailand presents an ideal solution.
Regions like the Eastern Economic Corridor (EEC), already a hub for industrial and logistics
