Property Description

Thailand’s real estate market is witnessing a remarkable influx of foreign investment in 2024, with buyers from neighboring Myanmar and other international markets reshaping the property landscape.
This surge is driven by regional instability, government initiatives, and Thailand’s enduring appeal as a stable and attractive investment destination.
This blog explores how these factors are influencing the market, offering insights into the trends, opportunities, and challenges ahead.
The Myanmar Influence: A Notable Surge in Property Purchases Amid economic and political instability following Myanmar’s military coup, wealthy Myanmar nationals have increasingly turned to Thailand as a safe haven for their assets.
Data from the Real Estate Information Center (REIC) reveals that condominium purchases by Myanmar buyers tripled in the first nine months of 2024 compared
