Property Description

Thailand has long been a top destination for retirees, and May 2025 brings even more reasons for international retirees to consider making the move.
From improved transportation and healthcare access to updated visa procedures and property opportunities, this article outlines the most important developments that make retiring in Thailand more attractive than ever.
Seamless Travel from Bangkok to Coastal Retreats One of the most significant changes in May is the official launch of direct airport bus routes connecting Bangkok's Don Mueang and Suvarnabhumi airports to popular retirement destinations like Hua Hin and Pattaya.
Operated by Transport Co.
, Ltd.
, these routes feature comfortable, first-class buses with fares starting at just 122 THB.
This means retirees flying into Bangkok can now enjoy affordable, hassle-free travel
