Property Description

The Hua Hin International Jazz Festival returned in spectacular form in May 2025, reaffirming the beach town's status as a cultural hub in Thailand. Held from May 1st to May 2nd, the festival stretched across four days and seven performance stages, making it the largest edition in recent memory.
This signature event drew thousands of music lovers, tourists, and residents to the Hua Hin beachfront and surrounding venues.
A Music Event That Transforms the City For decades, the Hua Hin Jazz Festival has blended local charm with world-class musical talent, but this year saw a major expansion.
With support from the Prachuap Khiri Khan provincial government, the Tourism Authority of Thailand (TAT), and local businesses, the festival offered: Performances from top Thai jazz
