Property Description

Thailand Grants Legal Work Rights to Refugees in August 2025 In August 2025, Thailand made a landmark decision to grant legal employment rights to over 80,000 Myanmar refugees who have been living in camps for decades.
The move, widely reported by Reuters, was described as a “strategic investment” by the UN Refugee Agency (UNHCR).
This new policy doesn’t just carry humanitarian value—it also has direct economic benefits, strengthening labor markets that support Thailand’s housing and real estate sector.
For expats considering investing in Thailand, particularly in Hua Hin, the news signals long-term economic stability and a supportive environment for property ownership and rental investments.
Why the Policy Matters for Expats and Investors Expats in Thailand rely on stable economic conditions when making decisions
