Property Description

Beneath the headlines focused on The White Lotus filming locations and luxury resort expansions, Koh Samui's residential property market is undergoing what industry analysts describe as a quiet revolution.
According to C9 Hotelworks' comprehensive market analysis, the island's total real estate market for sale currently stands at approximately ?30.
3 billion, with a pronounced shift underway from the traditional villa-dominated landscape toward more diverse offerings including large-scale condominiums.
Yet what truly distinguishes Koh Samui in Thailand's competitive resort property landscape is a fundamental pricing advantage that sophisticated investors increasingly recognise.
As The Thaiger's property analysis notes, compared to destinations like Phuket or Bangkok where land prices have experienced sharp increases, Koh Samui's lower land costs create a significant advantage for luxury villa developments that
