Property Description

Thailand’s tourism recovery continues to exceed expectations, with the Tourism Authority of Thailand (TAT) confirming that the kingdom welcomed approximately 6 million international visitors by late February 2026, generating an estimated ?293 billion in tourism revenue.
These figures, reported by Nation Thailand and corroborated by Hua Hin Today, represent a year-on-year increase that underscores Thailand’s enduring appeal as a global travel destination — and carries significant implications for property investors across the country’s resort markets.
The pace of arrivals through the first two months of 2026 suggests that the annual target of 39–40 million visitors remains achievable, placing Thailand on a trajectory that would surpass pre-pandemic highs set in 2019.
For property investors in Hua Hin and along the Gulf Coast, these numbers
