Property Description

The Department of Rural Roads has confirmed that construction on the Thailand Riviera road is advancing through both Phetchaburi and Prachuap Khiri Khan provinces, with two priority sections now fully funded and work actively underway toward a 2027 completion target.
This ?1.
4 billion infrastructure investment represents one of the most consequential transportation developments for Hua Hin’s property market in decades, creating an alternative coastal route that will fundamentally change how residents, tourists, and investors experience Thailand’s Gulf Coast corridor.
The Thailand Riviera road project—officially known as the Royal Coast Project—has been discussed in policy circles for years, but the commitment of substantial construction funding and the visible progress along multiple sections has transformed it from aspirational planning into concrete reality.
