Property Description

Thailand has secured a milestone that property investors, retirees, and the country's tourism authorities have long anticipated: on 1 July 2026, the kingdom was ranked the best country in Asia and ninth globally as a retirement destination in International Living's prestigious Global Retirement Index.
The ranking, now in its 35th year, awarded Thailand an overall score of 80.
0 points and, perhaps most significantly for regional bragging rights, positioned the country ahead of long-time rival Malaysia, which slipped from seventh globally in 2025 to tenth this year.
For anyone considering Thailand as a retirement base or evaluating the country's property market for investment purposes, this recognition carries implications that extend well beyond mere prestige.
The Global Retirement Index 2026 evaluates countries across seven carefully
