Property Description

For remote workers, freelancers, and digital entrepreneurs dreaming of basing themselves in Thailand, the Destination Thailand Visa (DTV) has emerged as the definitive long-stay solution, and its importance has only intensified following the May 2026 decision to cut visa-free stays from 60 to 30 days for most nationalities.
As the informal "visa run" approach to extended Thailand presence becomes increasingly untenable, the DTV represents the clearest legal pathway for those earning foreign income who want to make Thailand their base.
Understanding how this visa works, who qualifies, and how to apply successfully has become essential knowledge for the growing community of location-independent professionals drawn to the kingdom.
Launched on 15 July 2024 through a Royal Thai Government Gazette announcement, the Destination Thailand Visa
