Property Description

The transformation of Hua Hin Airport from a modest domestic facility into a genuine international gateway has moved decisively from aspiration toward reality, with Prime Minister Anutin Charnvirakul's government issuing explicit orders in late May and early June 2026 to accelerate the necessary upgrades.
The government's confirmation on 30 May 2026 that it is fast-tracking Hua Hin Airport's development as a key tourism gateway for the upper South and Gulf of Thailand coast represents one of the most significant infrastructure commitments affecting the region's property market in years.
For property investors evaluating Hua Hin, this governmental push carries implications that extend well beyond mere convenience.
Deputy Government Spokesperson Lalida Periswiwatana articulated the strategic vision clearly, explaining that the government under Prime Minister and
