Property Description

If you have typed "Wan Vayla Hua Hin" into a search engine, you have almost certainly already seen the photographs: the long infinity pool set against the Gulf, the low white buildings behind their gardens, the strip of sand that runs unbroken to the headland.
What those photographs do not tell you is which units actually look at that view, what the difference is between a unit priced at five and a half million baht and one priced at thirty-five, or what it genuinely costs to own a property that sits fifty metres from salt water.
This guide is an attempt to answer those questions properly, using the eleven units we currently hold at Wan Vayla as the working example — because real
